

Southwestern Historical Association

CALL FOR PAPERS

HOUSTON, MARCH 31- APRIL 3, 2010

(In Conjunction with the Southwestern Social Science Association)

You are cordially invited to join the Southwestern Historical Association in the Bayou City, Houston, Texas, March 31 – April 3, 2010. Participants may submit proposals for panels, individual papers or roundtable sessions in any area of history. Proposals are welcome from faculty, independent scholars, public historians, and students. Students may also propose papers or entire panels for student-only panel sessions sponsored by Phi Alpha Theta, the national History Honor Society, however they must be members of the organization to participate on such a panel. Otherwise, students may also submit papers for regular sessions. Students should submit papers for either a Phi Alpha Theta session or a regular session.

Please complete and send the accompanying paper proposal submission form for each individual paper or for each paper on a proposed panel to the appropriate area coordinator listed below; incomplete forms cannot be considered. The deadline for receiving proposals via traditional or e-mail is October 30, 2009. Individuals submitting accepted proposals will be notified by email approximately three weeks after the submission deadline. Requests for projection equipment must also be submitted at the same date, with the proposal. Participants may also submit their papers for consideration in the paper competitions, of which there are four, one for each field: prize monies accompany the honor. Please refer to www.sssaonline.org for meeting details including accommodations, travel, registration, etc.
